

TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION (458)

ADDENDUM F

LOCAL OPTION ELECTIONS

For the Fiscal Year Ended August 31, 2017

Fifty-three (53) local option elections were held for fifty (51) jurisdictions in FY 2017. Forty-nine (49) of the election issues passed. Four (4) failed to win voter approval. Of the jurisdictions holding elections, twenty-three (23) became "wet" for the first time as a result of the elections, twenty-four (24) expanded alcoholic beverage sales or authorized additional sales, and four (4) retained their previous wet/dry status. Issues for which elections were held included "the legal sale of beer and wine" (4 ea.), "the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only" (24 ea.), "the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption only" (4 ea.), the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages" (18 ea.), and "the legal sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by food and beverage certificate holders only" (3 ea.). A summary of each election held and its outcome is provided below.

Elections Held November 8, 2016

An election was held for the City of Frankston, Anderson County, on November 8, 2016 on the issue of "the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only." The issue PASSED by a vote of 342 FOR and 189 AGAINST. The City of Frankston, Anderson County, was "dry" for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now "wet" for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

A countywide election was held for Bailey County on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only." The issue PASSED by a vote of 944 FOR and 622 AGAINST. Bailey County was "wet" in part for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is "wet" throughout for such sales.

An election was held for the City of Copperas Cove, Bell, Coryell, and Lampasas Counties, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages." The issue PASSED by a vote of 5,896 FOR and 1,615 AGAINST. The City of Copperas Cove, Bell, Coryell, and Lampasas Counties, was "wet" for the sale of beer and wine before the election and after the election is now "wet" for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Pearland, Brazoria, Fort Bend, and Harris Counties, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption only." The issue PASSED by a vote of 24,349 FOR and 12,412 AGAINST. Before the election, the City of Pearland, Brazoria, Fort Bend, and Harris Counties, was "wet" for the sale of beer, for wine for off-premises consumption, and for mixed beverages in restaurants by holders of food and beverage certificates and after the election, Pearland is "wet" for the sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption, for the sale of beer for on-premises consumption, and for the sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by food and beverage certificate holders.

An election was held for the City of Blanket, Brown County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only." The issue PASSED by a vote of 109 FOR and 26 AGAINST. The City of Blanket, Brown County, was "dry" for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now "wet" for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of Baird, Callahan County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages." The issue PASSED by a vote of 340 FOR and 155 AGAINST. The City of Baird, Callahan County was "wet" only for the sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is "wet" for all alcoholic beverage sales including the sale of mixed beverages.

An election was held for Justice of the Peace Precinct 1, Callahan County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of beer and wine." The issue PASSED by a vote of 1,647 FOR and 520 AGAINST. Justice of the Peace Precinct 1, Callahan County was "wet" only for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is now "wet" for the sale of beer and wine.

An election was held for the City of Atlanta, Cass County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only." The issue PASSED by a vote of 1,099 FOR and 881 AGAINST. The City of Atlanta, Cass County, was "dry" for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now "wet" for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of New Summerfield, Cherokee County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only." The issue PASSED by a vote of 81 FOR and 45 AGAINST. The City of New Summerfield, Cherokee County, was "dry" for all alcoholic beverages sales before the election and after the election is now "wet" for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of Royse City, Collin, Hunt, and Rockwall Counties, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages." The issue PASSED by a vote of 1,737 FOR and 552 AGAINST. The City of Royse City, Collin, Hunt, and Rockwall Counties, was "wet" only for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is now "wet" for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Roanoke, Denton and Tarrant Counties, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages, including mixed beverages." The issue PASSED by a vote of 1,753 FOR and 740 AGAINST. Before the election, the City of Roanoke, Denton and Tarrant Counties, was "wet" for the sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by food and beverage certificate holders and the sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption. Now, after the election, the city is "wet" for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Ranger, Eastland County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages." The issue PASSED by a vote of 460 FOR and 182 AGAINST. The City of Ranger, Eastland County, was "wet" only for the sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is "wet" for all alcoholic beverage sales including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Hamlin, Fisher and Jones Counties, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages." The issue PASSED by a vote of 532 FOR and 184 AGAINST. The City of Hamlin, Fisher and Jones Counties, was partially "wet" for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages before the election and after the election is now "wet" throughout for such sales.

An election was held for the City of Sherman, Grayson County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages." The issue PASSED by a vote of 8,117 FOR and 3,147 AGAINST. The City of Sherman, Grayson County was "wet" only for sales of beer and wine for off-premises consumption and mixed beverages in restaurants by food and beverage certificate holders before the election and now after the election is "wet" for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the area formerly known as the City of Houston Heights, Harris County, Texas, as it existed on February 19, 1918, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of "the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only." The issue PASSED by a vote of 4,779 FOR and 2,691 AGAINST. The area formerly known as the City of Houston Heights, Harris County, as it existed on February 19, 1918, was "dry" for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now "wet" for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for Justice of the Peace Precinct 3, Harrison County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 4,372 FOR and 1,974 AGAINST. Justice of the Peace Precinct 3, Harrison County, was “wet” in part for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is “wet” throughout for such sales.

A countywide election was held for Hemphill County on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue FAILED by a vote of 800 FOR and 826 AGAINST. Hemphill County was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and remains “dry” for such sales.

An election was held for the City of Caddo Mills, Hunt County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 314 FOR and 172 AGAINST. The City of Caddo Mills, Hunt County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of Jacksboro, Jack County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 904 FOR and 273 AGAINST. The City of Jacksboro, Jack County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Robinson, McLennan County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by food and beverage certificate holders only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 3,999 FOR and 921 AGAINST. Before the election, the City of Robinson, McLennan County, was “wet” for the sale of beer for both on and off-premises consumption and the sale of wine for off-premises consumption and after the election is now also “wet” for the sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by holders of food and beverage certificates.

An election was held for the City of Goldthwaite, Mills County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages, including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 357 FOR and 277 AGAINST. The City of Goldthwaite, Mills County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Pine Forest, Orange County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 71 FOR and 54 AGAINST. The City of Pine Forest, Orange County, was “wet” in large part for the sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption and after the election is “wet” throughout for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption, while those portions of the city that were “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption retain that status.

An election was held for the City of Beckville, Panola County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 159 FOR and 91 AGAINST. The City of Beckville, Panola County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of Mathis, San Patricio County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 757 FOR and 356 AGAINST. The City of Mathis, San Patricio County, was “wet” only for the sale of beer and wine before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Grapevine, Tarrant County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption only.” The issue FAILED by a vote of 9,778 FOR and 11,530 AGAINST. The City of Grapevine, Tarrant County, was “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption and for mixed beverages sales before the election and after the election remains “wet” only for such sales.

An election was held for Justice of the Peace Precinct 1, Tarrant County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 41,612 FOR and 22,905 AGAINST. Justice of the Peace Precinct 1, Tarrant County, was “wet” in part for the sale all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is “wet” throughout for such sales.

An election was held for the City of Mount Pleasant, Titus County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of all beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 2,074 FOR and 1,642 AGAINST. The City of Mount Pleasant, Titus County was “wet” only for the sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by holders of food and beverage certificates before the election and after the election is now also “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Upshur County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 1,711 FOR and 849 AGAINST. Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Upshur County was “wet” in part for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is “wet” throughout for such sales.

An election was held for Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Uvalde County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 682 FOR and 308 AGAINST. Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Uvalde County, was “wet” in part for the sale of beer before the election and after the election is “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Canton, Van Zandt County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 740 FOR and 635 AGAINST. The City of Canton, Van Zandt County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of Canton, Van Zandt County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by food and beverage certificate holders only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 812 FOR and 551 AGAINST. The City of Canton, Van Zandt County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by food and beverage certificate holders.

An election was held for the City of Boyd, Wise County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 272 FOR and 96 AGAINST. The City of Boyd, Wise County was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine.

An election was held for the City of Decatur, Wise County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 1,214 FOR and 506 AGAINST. The City of Decatur, Wise County, was “wet” only for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption before the election and after the is now “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Graham, Young County, on November 8, 2016, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 1,855 FOR and 1,482 AGAINST. The City of Graham, Young County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

Elections Held May 6, 2017

An election was held for the City of Muleshoe, Bailey County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 131 FOR and 55 AGAINST. The City of Muleshoe, Bailey County, was “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Troy, Bell County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 70 FOR and 10 AGAINST. The City of Troy, Bell County, was “wet” only for the sale of beer before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine.

An election was held for the City of Maud, Bowie County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 156 FOR and 142 AGAINST. The City of Maud, Bowie County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Point Comfort, Calhoun County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 50 FOR and 36 AGAINST. The City of Point Comfort, Calhoun County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of Cross Plains, Callahan County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 94 FOR and 67 AGAINST. The City of Cross Plains, Callahan County was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.

An election was held for the City of Hughes Springs, Cass County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 59 FOR and 44 AGAINST. The City of Hughes Springs, Cass County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of Comanche, Comanche County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 131 FOR and 66 AGAINST. The City of Comanche, Comanche County, was “wet” only for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for Justice of the Peace Precinct 4, Ellis County, on May 6, 2017, on the issues of “the legal sale of beer and wine.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 1,267 FOR and 531 AGAINST. Justice of the Peace Precinct 4, Ellis County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine.

An election was held for Justice of the Peace Precinct 4, Ellis County, on May 6, 2017, on the issues of “the legal sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by holders of food and beverage certificates only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 1,315 FOR and 471 AGAINST. Justice of the Peace Precinct 4, Ellis County, was dry for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by food and beverage certificate holders.

An election was held for the City of Leonard, Fannin County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue FAILED by a vote of 145 FOR and 223 AGAINST. The City of Leonard, Fannin County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election remains “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales.

An election was held for the City of Bells, Grayson County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 157 FOR and 38 AGAINST. The City of Bells, Grayson County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of White Oak, Gregg County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 776 FOR and 439 AGAINST. The City of White Oak, Gregg County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of Lone Oak, Hunt County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 87 FOR and 36 AGAINST. The City of Lone Oak, Hunt County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Jasper County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 181 FOR and 60 AGAINST. Justice of the Peace Precinct 2, Jasper County, was “dry” before the election and now after the election is “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for Justice of the Peace Precinct 3, Liberty County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 159 FOR and 76 AGAINST. Justice of the Peace Precinct 3, Liberty County, was “wet” only in part for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption before the election and after the election is now “wet” throughout for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for City of Llano, Llano County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 288 FOR and 141 AGAINST. The City of Llano, Llano County, was “wet” for all alcoholic beverage sales except mixed beverages before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages.

An election was held for the City of Daingerfield, Morris County, on the issue of “the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption only.” The issue FAILED by a vote of 21 FOR and 49 AGAINST. The City of Daingerfield, Morris County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election remains “dry” for the sale of alcoholic beverages.

An election was held for the City of Tenaha, Shelby County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 120 FOR and 54 AGAINST. The City of Tenaha, Shelby County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

An election was held for the City of Edgewood, Van Zandt County, on May 6, 2017, on the issue of “the legal sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption only.” The issue PASSED by a vote of 126 FOR and 116 AGAINST. The City of Edgewood, Van Zandt County, was “dry” for all alcoholic beverage sales before the election and after the election is now “wet” for the sale of beer and wine for off-premises consumption.

TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION (458)

ADDENDUM E

WET-DRY STATUS OF TEXAS COUNTIES

For the Fiscal Year Ended August 31, 2017

+The sale of mixed beverages is legal in all or part of county as is the sale of distilled spirits for off-premises consumption. (188)

+¹The sale of mixed beverages in restaurants by holders of FB certificates is legal in all or part of the county but the county is "dry" for the sale of distilled spirits for off-premises consumption. (6)

*County "wet" throughout for the sale of distilled spirits for off premises consumption (76). Note: 148 counties are "wet" in part for the sale of distilled spirits for off-premises consumption.

COUNTIES IN WHICH DISTILLED SPIRITS ARE LEGAL: 230

Anderson+	Chambers+	Falls+	Hill+	Lee+*	Panola+ ¹	Tarrant+
Andrews+ ¹	Cherokee+	Fannin+	Hockley+	Leon+	Parker+	Taylor+
Angelina+ ¹	Childress+*	Fayette+*	Hood+	Liberty+	Parmer	Terrell*
Aransas+*	Clay+	Fisher+*	Hopkins+	Live Oak+	Pecos+	Titus+
Archer	Cochran	Floyd+	Houston+ ¹	Llano+	Polk+	Tom Green+
Armstrong*	Coleman+	Foard+*	Howard+	Lubbock+*	Potter+	Travis+
Atascosa+	Collin+	Fort Bend+*	Hudspeth+*	Lynn	Presidio+*	Trinity*
Austin+*	Colorado+*	Franklin+ ¹	Hunt+	Madison+ ¹	Rains+	Tyler+
Bailey+	Comal+*	Freestone+	Hutchinson+	Marion+	Randall+	Upshur+
Bandera+	Comanche+	Frio+	Jack+	Matagorda+	Reagan*	Upton*
Bastrop+*	Cooke+	Galveston+	Jackson+	Maverick+	Real+	Uvalde+
Bee+	Coryell+	Garza+	Jasper+	McCulloch+	Red River	Val Verde+*
Bell+	Cottle+*	Gillespie+	Jeff Davis+	McLennan+	Reeves+*	Van Zandt+
Bexar+*	Crane*	Goliad+*	Jefferson+	Medina+	Refugio*	Victoria+*
Blanco+	Crockett*	Gonzales+*	Jim Hogg+*	Menard*	Robertson+	Walker+
Bosque+	Crosby+*	Gray+	Jim Wells+	Midland+*	Rockwall+	Waller+*
Bowie+	Culberson+*	Grayson+	Johnson+	Milam+	Runnels+	Ward*
Brazoria+	Dallam*	Gregg+	Jones+	Mills+	Rusk+	Washington+*
Brazos+*	Dallas+	Grimes+	Karnes+*	Mitchell+*	Sabine+	Webb+*
Brewster+*	Dawson+	Guadalupe+*	Kaufman+	Montague+	San Augustine	Wharton+*
Briscoe	Deaf Smith*	Hale+	Kendall+*	Montgomery+	San Jacinto	Wheeler+
Brooks+*	Denton+	Hall+	Kenedy+*	Moore+*	San Patricio+	Wichita+
Brown+	DeWitt+	Hamilton+	Kerr+	Morris+	San Saba+*	Wilbarger+*
Burleson+	Dickens	Hansford+	Kimble*	Motley+	Schleicher*	Willacy+
Burnet+*	Dimmitt+*	Hardeman+*	King	Nacogdoches+	Scurry+*	Williamson+
Caldwell+	Donley+*	Hardin+	Kinney+*	Navarro+	Shackelford	Wilson+
Calhoun+	Duval+*	Harris+	Kleberg+*	Newton	Shelby	Winkler*
Callahan+	Eastland+	Harrison+	Knox	Nolan+*	Sherman+*	Wise+
Cameron+*	Ector+*	Hartley	Lamar+	Nueces+*	Smith+	Wood+
Camp+	Edwards	Haskell+	Lamb+	Ochiltree+*	Star+*	Young
Carson+	El Paso+*	Hays+	Lampasas+	Oldham+	Stonewall	Zapata+*
Cass+	Ellis+	Henderson+	La Salle+*	Orange+	Sutton+*	Zavala+*
Castro	Erath	Hidalgo+*	Lavaca+	Palo Pinto+	Swisher

ADDENDUM E (Continued)

COUNTIES IN WHICH ONLY 4% BEER IS LEGAL: 4

Some counties are only partially wet.

Baylor

Irion

Mason

Stephens

COUNTIES IN WHICH 14% - 17% OR LESS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ARE LEGAL: 13

Some counties are only partially wet.

Coke

Glasscock

McMullen

Yoakum

Concho

Limestone

Somervell

Gaines

Lipscomb

Sterling

Delta

Loving

Terry

COUNTIES ENTIRELY DRY: 7

Borden

Hemphill

Martin

Throckmorton

Collingsworth

Kent

Roberts

